Washington, D. C., April 27, 1894.

Hon. Eugene Townsend,

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I am in receipt of a letter from the Central National Bank, Philadelphia, stating that it had been receiving from you new silver coin, particularly quarters and dimes, in exchange for other moneys (probably gold coin under the provisions of Section 3527, Revised Statutes U.S.), but upon a recent application it was refused, for the reason that you had orders not to pay out any more such coins.

As the above section of the Revised Statutes U.S. authorizes certain silver coins to be paid out for gold coin, it is not seen how applicants can be denied the exchange so long as there is a supply of such coins in the Mint.

Respectfully yours,

Asst. Treasurer U.S.
